Early Reinforcements For Far Pacific Are Predicted In Capital

BEHIND The scenes in BUSINESS BY JOHN CRADDOCK

REBOUND — Following the December slowdown in department store sales, attributed to the sobering effect of war's outbreak, the nation's shoppers have resumed a record-breaking stride. For the weeks ending Jan. 3 and Jan. 10, nation-wide store sales show 27 and 32 per cent gains, respectively, over corresponding weeks of the previous year. This in spite of the fact that those same weeks a year ago were themselves recording tremendous gains — were, in fact, topping even fabulous 1929 in volume of goods sold. However, in the present case higher prices account for approximately half of the dollar-volume increases being shown.

WASHINGTON — Just about the biggest single development in America's war effort since fateful December 7 is the nomination of Donald M. Nelson, former Sears-Roebuck executive and latterly head of SPAB, to be the one-man, absolute boss of all war production and procurement. Here's the informal but forceful keynote he struck as to what's going to be happening to our business and industrial habits: "During the next few months we are going to be discarding so many old routines, and doing so many things that never have been done before, that it will make your hair curl!" — He went on to warn that it's going to be "hard to swallow" many of the things that may have to be done to industry. Among them are: Pooling of tools; redistribution of skilled workers; curtailment of what we've come to regard as the ordinary functions of ownership, management, and labor; the upsetting of commercial and industrial arrangements of years' standing; the trampling on all sorts of privileges and prerogatives.

BITS O' BUSINESS — Production quotas for auto parts are being revised upward (because, unable to get new cars, we'll have to do more part-replacing on the old) — A "Victory Model" bicycle was ceremoniously launched in Washington. Stripped of copper, nickel and chrome trim, it weighs 34 pounds compared to the average peacetime 55-pounder, is designed for adults — American Airlines, with 38 per cent gain in passenger traffic in 1941, became the first air transport company in the world to top the million mark in passengers in a calendar year; its actual total was 1,202,816 — OPM's contract distribution division says small manufacturers are to be assigned one per cent of all available raw materials to help them keep their plants going — The steel scrap shortage is still serious.

NEW NOUN — Wars bring new words — or bring back old ones in new attire. Remember "camouflage," "strafing," "canteen" and "doughboy" of World War I? Here's a brand-new one, a child of World War II: "imagineering." A combination of imagination and engineering. It's defined as "the fine art of deciding where we go from here," and it just grew (like Topsy) in the research laboratories of Aluminum Company of America. With the war program taking all present output, and with the vastly expanded capacity threatening to create terrific surpluses after the war, researchers in aluminum—as in many other industries — are burning the midnight oil to develop "imaginative" new uses for their products. That'll serve the double purpose of helping boost general living standards and keeping industry from being "becalmed" after the war. "Imagineering" seemed to describe this sort of research pretty well.

2 GUARD BILLS DEFEATED BY ASSEMBLY

Senators Play Cribbage Awaiting Breaking Of Lower House Deadlock

By JOHN W. DUNLAP
United Press Staff Correspondent
SACRAMENTO, (UP) — The California legislature was right where it started last December with no state guard authorization to show after 16 days of effort.

The assembly last night refused for the fifth time to pass state guard legislation when Gov. Culbert Olson's minority bloc of 25 votes headed off repeated attempts to pass various bills containing restrictions.

The lower house faced disheartening prospects in making a new start today. Powerful senate pressure was being exerted to reach a compromise, however, since the upper house has approved three bills only to see them beaten by the assembly.

The senate has been forced into a week's idleness while the assembly bickered stubbornly. Senate members while away the hours playing cribbage, reading newspapers, eating oranges, and making breast-beating speeches on the most trivial of subjects.

1st Aid Classes Being Planned

Anyone Past Age Of 17 Is Eligible To Enroll In 11-Session Course

The exceptional demands for instruction in First Aid has called for the planning of several classes, which will be started in the immediate future, according to E. W. Zueger, Red Cross first aid chairman.

Anyone over 17 years is eligible to enroll. The fee is $1.00 for the entire course, which includes the Red Cross Textbook and other supplies. Each class will consist of 11 sessions of 2 hours each.

Interested persons should enroll with any of the following instructors, for classes as listed:

In Camino, Henry Knipple or N. C. Bradley, classes scheduled to start Thursday, January 29, at the school.

In Pollock Pines, A. L. Hamilton, instructor. Registration should be made with Harry Reese, class to start as soon as enough sign up.

At Missouri Flat, John Peterson will start a class about February 25 to March 1st. Register with him or with Florence Sweeney.

In Diamond Springs, two instructors are prepared for all who register. Registration should be made with Roland Gust at the Diamond Garage, or with Allen Tinker.

In Placerville, Mrs. Cora Baker, at the Sierra Studio, will accept registration and start classes as soon as enough people have signed up. These classes will be held in the Court House.

Sometime in March, a class will be organized at Youngs, with Mrs. Roland Gust as instructor. A special class for the Placerville Fire Department is in process of formation and will start soon.

Classes are planned at a later date for Georgetown and other points.

The class which has been meeting at the court house every Wednesday night has concluded with 23 persons passing the final tests. The Winter Sports First Aid Class at Strawberry is scheduled to close on February 2.

New classes will be limited to a membership of 30 each, first come, first served.

It is suggested that anyone registered with Civilian Defense work join one of these groups.

FAST PACE FOR WAR RELIEF

War Relief Fund Campaign Probably Will Close Late In February, Says Chairman

The Red Cross War Relief Fund campaign is moving toward its $2,000 quota in El Dorado County at a fast pace and probably will be concluded during the latter part of February, Mrs. R. A. Sinclair, campaign chairman, said Wednesday.

Coming events in the series of card parties and other activities in behalf of the War Relief Fund, up to and including January 30th include:

Card party at Smith Flat Thursday evening, January 22, sponsored by Hangtown Grange;

Card party Friday evening, January 23, Eagles Hall, sponsored by Eagles Auxiliary;

Food sale Saturday at Diamond Springs, by the P. T. A.;

Card party, Friday, January 30th, at Pollock Pines school auditorium, sponsored by the Fresh Pond-Pollock Pines P. T. A.

Other special events are scheduled up to and including February 12th, and it is suggested that those planning to arrange similar events should check with Mrs. Florence Sweeney, Red Cross chairman for such activities, to make certain a conflict in dates will be avoided.

Complete reports from all of the activities of the past week had not been received by the chairman on Wednesday afternoon. The Camino P. T. A. card party last Friday night reported $24 for the fund.

Mrs. Minnie Scherrer and Mrs. Maggie Carpenter were co-hostesses Tuesday at a party at the I. O. O. F. hall which had started out to be a home party and reached such proportions that it was moved to the hall.

There was a series of parties Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Wednesday evening club of the Episcopal Guild, Mrs. Mabel Calvin, Mrs. Don Emmerson, Mrs. Ruth McKee and Mrs. Edwin Cas-

Income Tax Facts

No. 8
SAVE FOR TAXES

To make it easier for taxpayers to meet the increased taxes required by the National Defense Program, the Treasury Department is offering for sale two series of notes, both dated August 1, 1941, and maturing August 1, 1943.

In January of each year two new series will be provided, so that a taxpayer can always purchase the notes during the entire year in which he is receiving his income for use in payment of taxes due the following year. The reason for the 2-year note is to permit a taxpayer, if he so desires, to begin saving in January for one year and continue through that year to save for his taxes due the following year.

All notes are sold at par and accrued interest. When presented in payment of income taxes they will be received at par and accrued interest up to and including the month in which such taxes are paid. Interest will not accrue beyond the maturity of the notes. If not presented in payment of income taxes, they will be redeemed for cash under certain specified conditions at the purchase price for the notes. In other words, the taxpayer if he redeems the notes for cash, gets back just the amount he paid.

Complete information about these treasury notes will be found in a Treasury Department circular available at local banks, Federal Reserve banks and branches, or Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON, (UP) — Secretary of treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., today said the treasury hopes that the American republics and Canada will agree upon a common unit of currency to be used in settling export trade accounts.

An agreement reached by the American republics might be extended to all countries outside the Axis, Morgenthau said.

The common unit might be the dollar or a new unit, Morgenthau said, adding that it might be based upon gold or silver.

TAXES MUST BE PAID MONDAY

First Installment Of City Levy Will Become Delinquent That Date

The attention of residents of the community is being directed by City Clerk Harold W. Duden to the circumstances that the first installment of city taxes for the current fiscal year will become delinquent if unpaid at the close of business on Monday.

The delinquency date for the second installment is May 12.

Mr. Duden said Thursday that tax collections have been good during the due period of the first installment and that the probability is for only a slight delinquency.

The city clerk is prepared to accept payment of taxes in full from those taxpayers who may desire to pay both the first and the second installment at this time.

CHORAL SOCIETY TO MEET MONDAY AT HOME OF MRS. GRACE HOSKING

The meeting of the recently organized Choral Society this coming Monday evening will be held at the home of Mrs. Grace Hosking, on Union Street, at 7:30 o'clock, and all who are interested in affiliating with the organization are welcome to join in the meeting.

The society met Monday night of this week at the Shakespeare Club House with twenty-two members present. A number of new voices joined in the rehearsal of spiritual, pastoral and humorous numbers which the group hopes to use for a concert in the near future.

A keen spirit of interest marked the practice which was given impetus by the able direction of C. Tudor Williams and the capable work of Mrs. Karl Fanning, accompanist.

Members present voiced the need for community singing as a part of civilian morale during the present war and expressed the hope that the group might soon become a nucleus in public singing of well known patriotic and popular songs.

Neither Turnbo nor Dorman were seriously hurt. It was reported that Mrs. Dorman had suffered a fracture of one knee cap but this was not confirmed.

14TH JAP ARMY ATTACKING ON LUZON

Gen. MacArthur's Forces Facing 200,000 To 300,000 Invaders In Philippines

WASHINGTON, (UP) — A high government official said today that vast emergency military steps, invoked immediately after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, have resulted in strengthening of our entire west coast defenses and Hawaii to unprecedented levels, and have paved the way for reinforcements in the southwest Pacific.

By UNITED PRESS

The Japanese threw an entire army of perhaps 200,000 to 300,000 men into the fight on Luzon today and renewed fierce attacks all along Gen. Douglas MacArthur's line on the Bataan peninsula.

A war department communique from Washington said "the entire Japanese 14th army, under capable Gen. Homma, together with a number of other units is now in Luzon." Enemy re-inforcements were being landed in Lingayen Gulf and Subic Bay in what appeared to be an all-out offensive against the courageous but greatly outnumbered American and Filipino defenders of the Philippines.

Meanwhile British land and air forces took the offensive on three Malayan fronts in an effort to break Japan's powerful drive on Singapore.

While defense forces shot down five more enemy planes during new raids on Singapore, the Imperials on the east coast struck suddenly by (Continued on Page Three)

LATROBE NEWS NOTES

The January meeting of the Latrobe P. T. A. was held last Friday evening, being called to order by President Mrs. Minerva Dodson. The minutes were read by Secretary Mrs. Ann Chaix and the nomination committee was elected to nominate the new officers for the coming year. Mrs. Myron Miller reported on information received from Mrs. Wickes of Placerville about Red Cross sewing. Some material was received and Mrs. Ann Chaix was voted chairman. Henry Lefevre, of Placerville, was the guest speaker of the evening and was greatly enjoyed by all present. The teacher, Mrs. Miller, presented each of the following children, Mary Lou Varozza, Robert Dodson, Jr., Donald Lasswell, Jacqueline Varozza, Ardis Estey, Helen Lasswell and Nathan Ervin with a book as reading awards. Vocal selections were given by Helen Lasswell, Ardis Estey, Mary Lou and Jacqueline Varozza. Helen played the piano accompaniment. The evening ended with refreshments of coffee, chocolate, cake and cookies.

Monday of last week seemed an unlucky day for our community. Stanley Bryant was badly shaken up when he was thrown from a ladder and knocked unconscious while working on the telephone line. P. Mocetini also had an accident and received a cut on his chin that required several stitches to close the wound. Mrs. J. L. Swift spent Monday and Tuesday of last week in the Sanatorium after a fall when she slipped on the wet ground falling on the edge of a pail and suffered a very painful injury to her ribs and a severe shock. She is getting along fine.

ambushing Japanese forces south of the Endal river, probably 60 or 70 miles north of the naval base. The enemy suffered heavy losses, a communiqué said.

On the west coast, where the Japanese had pressed to within 60 miles of Singapore island in the Batu sector, the British forces abandoned their defensive tactics and launched offensive thrusts in an effort to clean out enemy parties infiltrating through the jungles.

Royal Air Force squadrons in increasing number roared over the Japanese lines in central Malaya and blasted enemy bases and transportation columns, destroying large numbers of vehicles and breaking up the rear line communications essential to continuation of the enemy offensive.

The London press reported that Allied warships were operating off the Malaya west coast, blasting at Japanese lines and breaking up new landing parties.

Northward, in Burma, the Japanese appeared to have enlisted Thailand troops in a new thrust designed to endanger the Burma road supply line to China.

Chinese troops sent into Burma recently have not yet gone into action, but it was expected that Allied forces (especially American airplanes) would make an all out fight to protect the Burma road base at Rangoon.

On the southern Pacific front, the Japanese again attacked Belawan, the port for Medan on Sumatra island, and bombed Dutch shipping off the coast.

Hi Gossip

Our Commissioner of Finance is in a spin. The love bug bit him, incidentally she is a red head.

Our yell leader has been escorting Lois Tolson a lot lately. Might be that he's got something there.

If J. B. Lehan could only read the minds (?) of his economics class he would see the history of his life. Never have they had so many assignments in such a short time. First, questions and word study on Chapters I and II, then a 100 question test, a 500 question test, and a 4000-word essay. "Murder," says the economics students.

$241,572.08 DONATED TO NATIONAL DEFENSE SINCE DEC. 7

WASHINGTON, (UP)—Teetotaling, soil conservation, lawn-cutting and two dogs have helped swell the cash donations to the government's national defense fund, the treasury today said.

It announced that $241,572.08 has been received since the attack on Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7.

Not included in the total were securities, old gold, dental work, wedding rings, and other jewelry whose worth has not yet been ascertained.

The donors included: An Ohio farmer who returned his $83 soil conservation check with the notation: "I don't need it as bad as my Uncle Sam."

A New Year resolver who vowed to give up alcohol, drink more water and milk, eat less high priced meat and more vegetables and devote his savings to the war effort, and sent $16.

Ten members of a Boy Scout troop who sent 25 cents each.

A California boy who "cuts lawns now and then and makes a few cents."

Lady Dot, who forwarded her picture and a dollar that had been given her as a Christmas present with which to buy bones.

Mutt, who contributed a paw-print check for $5.02 and a promise to cut down on ice cream.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR
Executive Secretary
Agricultural Council of California

Turn back the pages of memory to days of the first World War and you will doubtless recall that now almost forgotten word—Hooverizing!

In millions of American kitchens, housewives learned how to Hooverize. Sugar was rationed carefully. White flour was used even more sparingly and American citizens learned, almost for the first time, that rough, dark breads were both palatable and healthful. Scores of substitutes—actually new foods—popped up on America's menu.

As talk of shortages increased and a hungry, fighting world cried out for food from American fields, this nation's agricultural plant stepped-up production at an ever increasing tempo. Millions of acres of grasslands were used for the first time for cultivated crops. Long-idle acres were planted. Flower gardens were sacrificed and vegetables were put in. And American agriculture finally brought its production to the point where it was nearly capable of feeding the whole civilized world.

After that hectic era, when men laid down their arms and returned to tilling the fields in battle-scarred Europe, the farmer reaped the whirlwind. Prices crashed; tremendous surpluses piled up in the warehouses; crops rotted in the fields for want of buyers. Agriculture has never actually recovered from the economic shock of that boom-bust cycle. The depression, in large part, was born of it. And today, as we again step up production to meet the abnormal demands of war-time, it is to be hoped that by careful, intelligent planning—and by profiting from the experiences of the last war—a repetition of that post-war disaster can be averted.

Certain basic facts might well be stated at this time—and kept constantly in mind.

America, with its vast agricultural plant, need have no fear of food shortages in this war, even with the increased demands resulting from shipments to our allies, except in a few instances, where the country is dependent on imports.

There is absolutely no excuse for hoarding. The housewife who rushes to her grocer and buys up half his stock of canned foods, or any other kind of food, is simply yielding to hysteria. And hysteria is much more dangerous to this nation than enemy bombs.

As time goes on, there may be—in fact doubtless will be—rationing of some commodities, but the rationing will probably apply more to industrial fuels and materials than to food products.

Again, farmers should keep in mind Secretary of Agriculture Wickard's statement that even though the goals for 1942 call for the largest production on the farm in the history of American agriculture, it will not be necessary materially to increase total crop acreage.

It should be remembered that the United States entered the war period with large surpluses of many farm products—surpluses which can now be utilized. And another important factor to be recalled is that the replacement of horse power with mechanical power on farms has made available approximately 35,000,000 acres of tilled soil for the production of food and fibers for human consumption. This land was formerly needed to produce feed crops for horses and mules. In addition, approximately 40,000,000 acres of newly-plowed land, resulting from the first World War, are available for crop production. The total of these two amounts has added about 75,000,000 acres to the area available for production of crops for market—equal to about one-fifth of all land in the United States now planted to crops.

American agriculture, in short, has a plant fully equal to the emergency. And American farmers can be depended upon to produce the commodities required of them, even with all the labor problems and other difficulties which may beset them during a war period.

Hubert Minahan Advances In Extension Service

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Minahan will be glad to hear that, as a result of Mr. Minahan's advancement to be an assistant farm advisor in Santa Clara County, they have moved from Stockton to San Jose to reside. Mr. Minahan had been an assistant farm advisor in San Joaquin County.

Mrs. Minahan is the former Margaret O'Leary, of Placerville, a daughter of Mrs. Charles Immer, of this city.

Paul Taylor and his assistant have been out from Placerville sinking the well on the Hurst place forty feet. They now have a fine flow of water and are lining the well with two-foot concrete pipe which they claim is better and cheaper than putting a rock wall in.

Miss Alice Gallagher and her sister Helen were up from Sacramento and spent the weekend with their folks.

John Hume has returned from a visit with his nephew Leland Bordan in Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hurst of San Francisco spent the weekend at their summer home here.

We hear Frank Dames and his orchestra of five pieces will play for the 49 dance here this Saturday night. Preparations are being made for a large crowd.

There was a good attendance at Union Sunday School and Church services here Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. E. Castledine in our old Episcopal church.

biggest conversion job in the world war drive, aiming at $5,000,000,000 worth of arms production in 1942. A "conversion committee" equally representative of management and labor met and, according to Cyrus S. Ching, the OPM chairman, showed "utmost co-operation" in contrast to previous struggles over unionization and other differences. Ching said, after a six-hour meeting, that unanimous agreement had been reached on consideration of many key problems such as seven-day operation with swing shift, "trainee" programs, and surveys of labor potentials, both men and women.

SPECIALISTS — With a wartime job to do, America's poultrymen look to further specialization, and wider use of efficient production methods, to reach the 1942 goal of four million dozen eggs and 750 million "eating" chickens. Production of poultry as a "cash crop" has increased greatly in eastern states in the last 10 years. Howard C. Pierce, specialist for the A & P, told the U. of Missouri poultry products short course. He cited the example of Delaware poultrymen, who went into mass production methods to supply the mass distributors for large eastern markets, and found the combination of efficiency in both production and distribution returning a larger portion of the consumer's poultry dollar to the producer. Delaware poultrymen have, in fact, increased the number of chickens sold by 173 per cent in the last decade, he said—and now more than 2,000,000 day-old chicks go into brooder houses every week on the Delaware-Maryland-Virginia peninsula. Most of these are raised for the table.

Peru's decision to sever diplomatic relations). It was reported that Brazil's action may be announced on the floor at the conference of foreign ministers of the American republics after the committee on hemisphere defense, on which all 21 delegations are represented, meets this afternoon to vote on the severance resolution, for which unanimous action is expected.

The so-called "big four" of the conference—United States Under-Secretary of State Sumner Welles and Foreign Ministers Oswaldo Aranha, (Brazil), Enrique Ruiz Guinazo, (Argentina) and Juan B. Rosetti, (Chile), held a secret conference at the foreign office today to arrange for swift approval of the resolution.

Foreign Minister Ezequiel Padilla of Mexico, who with the heads of the Venezuelan and Colombian delegations drafted the original severance resolution, said that the new formula is "not entirely satisfactory" and that it is certain to be discussed in committee where he will request that the word "immediately" be inserted in the text.

The new formula alters the original draft by giving each Pan-American country freedom of action in providing that the resolution be submitted to executive or congressional approval. A break in financial and economic relations with the Axis is not embodied in the redraft.

Book Campaign Helps Defense

Gift Of Textbooks And Fiction For Libraries In Camps Is Solicited

Effort is being made to conclude the Victory Book Campaign in the county on February 12th. It was announced during the week by Mrs. Jessie Maynard, chairman of the local campaign.

The drive is to collect books, fiction and textbooks, which will be suitable for the libraries in the Army camps and at the Navy stations and on ships throughout the world, and is being sponsored nationally by the USO, the Red Cross and the American Library Association.

Mrs. Maynard points out that the majority of the men in the armed services are in their early twenties and that the consideration of age might be a guide to the type of fiction which the men might most enjoy.

By the same token, textbooks which are contributed might be for studies which are undertaken during the earlier years of a college course. There is some demand for textbooks of recent date in the field of medicine and in law.

Those who wish to contribute books to the campaign in the county may leave them at any school-house, or may leave them at the Safeway Store, any service station of the Standard Oil Company, the office of Lutz Motor Sales, in upper Placerville, or at the city hall.
